

VERTIGO

By Gravity Hills
TURN YOUR
WHITE WINE
ON ITS HEAD

BRISK!

The makers of Gravity Hills wines feel that there is no comparable pleasure to drinking a crisp bottle of white wine outdoors on a warm evening. And this particular wine was created precisely for that purpose. We chose Chenin Blanc because we wanted a feisty wine with some snap and verve. Choosing the windy Central Coast for our grapes made ultimate sense because nowhere else in California does Chenin show such refinement. We added Riesling for its lovely, elusive perfume and wow, suddenly we had exactly the wine we wanted. You will see that Vertigo Chenin-Riesling is so fresh and quaffable that you will polish off the bottle before you know it. And then, friends, you might think you have vertigo yourself.

84% Chenin Blanc
16% Riesling
Central Coast
12.8 alcohol by volume

*"Vertigo is the conflict between the fear of falling and the desire to fall."
- Salman Rushdie*

www.gravityhills.com